4-C's mission is to be the central point of contact for community child care needs and serve as a VOICE FOR CHILDREN and families.

Year in Review

- 4-C sponsored 122 Family Child Care Home Providers in the USDA's Child and Adult Care Food Program that received $801,330 in meal reimbursement in return for serving 541,651 nutritious meals and snacks to children in their programs
- 4-C also sponsored 20 Child Care Centers in the USDA's Child and Adult Care Food Program that received $331,473 in meal reimbursement in return for serving 254,746 nutritious meals and snacks to children in their programs
- 4-C's Information and Referral Department matches parents seeking child care with local child care providers that meet their family's needs. This year 4-C provided 1,350 families with referrals to child care
- Over 45,000 visits were made to our website where users found 24 hour access to valuable tools and information about child care services, training events, news, advocacy alerts, abuse prevention, etc.
- 4-C's Training Department offers professional development opportunities for child care providers and parents via classroom trainings, video series, on-line modules and on-site technical assistance. 3,647 participants attended 1,068 unique training events this year where they received 3,648 clock hours of training with a total annual attendance of 11,751 hours.
- 4-C's Advocacy efforts this year included E-Advocacy through Kentucky's Voice for Children, Prichard Committee Strong Start Advisory Team, Children's Advocacy Day at the Capitol sponsor, and meetings with numerous local, state and federal elected officials
- 4-C also offers Shared Services which provides a wide range of financial management, human resource and administrative support to child care centers, and access to the Kentucky Shared Services on-line platform
- Some program offerings of note for this year include: partnering with Metro United Way and the Lift a Life Foundation to carry out the Excellence Academy which serves 6 child care centers with on-site and intensive professional development mentoring; partnering with Kosair Charities in the Face It® movement to help recognize and end child abuse; and partnering with the James Graham Brown and C.E. and S. Foundations in the Coaching For Quality program to mentor child care centers in low-income areas of Jefferson County.
