

Communities of Practice

Are you tired of online training and ready to connect with other professionals who share your passion?

Do you want to join with other play advocates and supporters?

Would you like to become a part of a professional community who meets regularly?

What are Communities of Practice?

Communities of Practice are formed by people who serve a common purpose, share a concern or a passion for something they do, and engage in the process of learning how to do it better as they interact regularly and support one another.

What you and your center will receive:

- Up to 15 hours TRIS approved FREE training hours for each participating staff member.
- Professional development opportunities that are hands-on, fun, pertinent to day-to-day classroom realities, and based on early learning best practices.
- Professional development for child care center leadership and staff that is interconnected and aligned.
- The opportunity to network with other teachers/directors from different centers but with similar roles.
- On-site coaching/technical assistance offered 1-2x during the course of the year.
