

Communities of Practice

JANUARY - JUNE 2022

FREE MONTHLY SESSIONS

Share your passion for teaching with like-minded peers. Dig deep and reflect on your teaching methods and classroom choices. Discover new perspectives as we learn from each other.

The benefits of joining a Community of Practice:

- Resource funding and supports
- Earn up to 12 hours of ECE TRIS approved credit for free
- Connect with other Early Childhood Professionals
- Choose from two different COP topics.

COPs in 2022 are being planned as virtual events with the potential for in person opportunities in the future. To register, visit our training calendar. www.4cforkids.org/training

The Joys of Teaching – This COP will meet monthly on the fourth Thursday from 4:30-6:30 pm. Discover or re-examine topics such as creating and sustaining meaningful interactions, schema theory, child development through play, and the joy of observing children.

Nature & Inquiry – This COP will meet monthly on the third Thursday from 12:30-2:30 pm. Learn and more deeply explore the importance that outdoor and natural learning plays in young children’s development. Topics include taking your classroom outdoors, creating green spaces in urban environments, and the impact of nature on social/emotional development.

Join a Community of Practice today!

Register for each session at www.4cforkids.org/training

